Coffee Corner

The Origin of Irish Coffee

Irish coffee was invented in 1938 at the Shannon Airport in County Limerick, Ireland, by chef Joe Sheridan. Flying float planes would land on the Foynes and passengers would be brought ashore in boats, shivering from the cold. In order to calm their nerves and warm them, Sheridan created Irish coffee, a concoction of hot coffee, with a shot of Irish whiskey and Irish cream floating on top.

Coffee Humor

An Irishman by the name of O'Mally proposed to his girl on St. Patrick's Day. He gave her a ring with a synthetic diamond. The excited young lass showed it to her father, a jeweler. He took one look at it and saw it wasn't real.

The young lass, on learning it wasn't real, returned to her future husband and protested vehemently about his cheapness.

"It was in honor of St. Patrick's Day," he smiled.

"I gave you a sham rock."

Coffee Cake

A former roommate baked a coffee cake and asked me to sample it.

It was pretty tasty, but I asked her what the small crunchy things were in the cake. She said the recipe called for 2 cups of strong coffee.

You guessed it. She put two cups of pure coffee in – not perked coffee!!! Quite a buzzzzzz from that cake.
